FULL & INTENSE RED WINES

Bottle

- 42 Shiraz Viognier The Lane 2019, Adelaide Hills, South East Australia 45.00
More than a nod to the great wines of the Northern Rhone where a small amount of Viognier is added to lift this dark Shiraz to another level. Gentle floral aromas waft in behind black fruit, spicy pepper and liquorice notes.
- 43 Psi Bodegas y Vinedos Alnardo 2018, Ribera del Duero, Spain 69.00
Classic Tempranillo - intense ruby colour and vibrant on the palate. Concentrated dark berry flavours and a hint of coffee and spice, this is from master winemaker Peter Sisseck who brought Pingus to fame. A project designed to revive areas of gnarly old vines which had been almost abandoned by their owners. Full bodied and fabulous with steak or venison.
- 44 Chateauneuf-du-Pape Cuvee Tradition Vignobles Gonnet 2017, Rhone, France 78.00
Organically grown Grenache (70%), Syrah (10%) and Mourvedre (10%) plus a smattering of other local grapes have been handpicked to produce this rich, dark, brambly red full of Christmas cake spices, liquorice and nutmeg notes. A full bodied, concentrated wine.
- 45 Chateau Lagrange a Pomerol 2015, Etablissement JP Moueix Pomerol, Bordeaux, France 84.00

- 46 Othello Dominus Estate 2014, Napa, USA 95.00
This wine made from grapes grown in the Bekaa Valley, is constructed differently each year; but the style is always emphatically Lebanese: enticingly aromatic, with persistent fruit flavours. There are some constants though; the wine is made from a blend of Cabernet Sauvignon, Cinsault and Carignan and aged for some time, usually about a year, in French Nevers oak. It is bottled in its third year and cellared for four more years prior to release.
- 47 Barolo Marassio DOCG Giulia Negri 2015, Piedmont, Italy 130.00
A Barolo for the true aficionado. Marassio vineyards are the highest altitude of all the Barolo sites and as such produce this dense, profound and super-crunchy style. Very much mineral-driven with bright fruit. Savour it as it unfolds in the glass. Reminiscent of a fine Burgundy in its lacy finesse.
